

Graduated in 1972, Mr. Godwin Ng Kwok Yin worked with the Inland Revenue Department as a qualified accountant for more than 20 years. After retirement, he has been practising as a barrister-at-law specialising in areas of revenue law, land and tenancy disputes, corporate matters and personal injuries. He is interested in reading books on traditional Chinese culture, health maintenance and economics, apart from legal studies and accountancy.

